

Where to find the Virtual Classroom access code

1. Click the "Member Resources" tab and a menu will appear.

2. Click "Membership Benefits."

The screenshot shows the NVFC member portal. The top navigation bar includes "Store", "Virtual Classroom", "Donate", "Member Resources", and "Volunteer Voices". The "Member Resources" tab is highlighted, and a dropdown menu is visible with options: "Member Welcome Packet", "Membership Benefits", "Members-Only Resources", "State Member Resources", and "Critical Illness Coverage". The user's profile is shown as "Laura Towers". Below the navigation, there are sections for "Profile" and "Contact Information".

3. Scroll down to the "Education" section and look for the bold code listed with the NVFC Virtual Classroom information. The current code can always be found here.

The screenshot shows the NVFC member portal with the "Education" section highlighted. The section contains a list of partner institutions and their benefits:

- > California Casualty Auto and Home Insurance - NVFC Members can save up to $443 a year on auto insurance! Eligible members can sign up for home and auto insurance at www.calcas.com/nvfc. Why California Casualty? Check out this short video series to learn more.
- > EDUCATION
- > NVFC Virtual Classroom - NVFC members can access the Virtual Classroom free of charge. Use this code to access the classes for free: FIF. Please note that the code changes quarterly. Click here to report any issues.
- > Columbia Southern University - Members of the NVFC (along with their spouses and dependents) are eligible for a waived application fee and 10% tuition discount. To take advantage of these savings, follow these simple steps: Go to www.columbiasouthern.edu, click on "Apply", select "National Volunteer Fire Council" on the application form from the dropdown list of partners. CSU also offers an annual scholarship for NVFC members. Stay tuned for announcements.
- > FirstForward - NVFC members will receive 10% off all online training purchased for themselves or their department as well as access to a FirstForward account. FirstForward provides your department with tools to manage your full training program, certifications, policy documents, and more). To learn more, visit <https://www.firstforward.com/>, or email getstarted@firstforward.com to learn more.
- > Trident University International is offering NVFC members, employees and their immediate family members up to 26% tuition discount on all online courses, as well as access to a Trident account. Trident also offering no-fee cyber textbooks and no application fees for bachelor and master's degrees. Trident's degree programs include business, leadership, emergency and disaster management, homeland security and others. To learn more about this and other programs, contact James Shiver at (334) 470-9146.
- > University of Maryland University College - NVFC members, their spouses, and dependents can take individual courses or certificate programs, most of which are available fully online. As an NVFC member, you are eligible for a 25 percent discount on all online courses. To learn more, please visit www.umuc.edu/nvfc.

The "EDUCATION" section is highlighted with a red circle and a yellow arrow pointing to the "FIF" code.